Submitted to His Highness.

During the last about 2 months my health has been in a poor condition and I had not been able to attend to my work with satisfaction. Instead of my health getting improved as I had hoped, I regret to find that it has gone worse. I am in a general run-down condition and feel very exhausted. It is essential that I should have complete rest and proper treatment lest there be further deterioration.

Under the circumstances, I propose that I may be allowed leave and the Minister for Finance and Industries be placed in charge of my duties.

I solicit that His Highness may be graciously pleased to sanction the same.

5) The Chief Minister is due to return to headquarters tomorrow and to take part in discussions with Sri V. P. Menon. It is not therefore known whether he will be resuming his office with effect from tomorrow. In the circumstances, it is for orders whether an Official Memorandum re: consequential arrangements is necessary at this stage. A draft O.M. is, however, put up in case it should be considered necessary.

6) As regards the Chief Minister's leave, it is for orders whether it should be notified or whether it would suffice to send a letter to the Comptroller intimating the period of leave availed of after ascertaining the exact period from the Chief Minister's Office.

7) Incidentally, this raises the question of the leave and leave allowances admissible to non-Official gentlemen appointed as Ministers. This will be worked up separately, if approved, with a view to framing a set of rules in the matter.

8) A letter to the comptroller to Govt regarding the leave availed of by the Chief Min may perhaps be enough.
